The functionalists / phenomenologists Morin, Hurlburt, Fernyhough Functions and phenomenology of inner speech The anaesthetists Dodge, Smith The psycholinguists Motor system ≠ verbal thought Levelt, Oppenheim, Dell Errors and monitoring during inner speech The introspectors The psychophysiologists Egger, Stricker, Ballet, Reed, Max, Jacobson, Sokolov, McGuigan, Cohen, Locke Bastian, Paulhan, Saint-Paul Muscular and electromyographic correlates of Sensory vs. motor images inner speech 1850 1900 1950 2000 2020 Soviet Psychology Vygotsky, Blonsky, Teplov, Leontiev, Ananiev, Luria, Sokolov Development, relation between thought and language The modern philosophers Carruthers, Langland-Hassan, Vicente, Gregory Consciousness, thought as action, predictive coding The early psychologists / behaviourists Watson, James The neurocognitivists Thought and inner speech emerge from Feinberg, Frith, Tian & Poeppel, Lævenbruck et al. muscular activity Motor control applied to inner speech The decoders

Martin et al., Kapur et al.

Decoding inner speech (eCOG, sEMG)