The functionalists Morin, Hurlburt, Fernyhough Functions and phenomenology of inner speech The anaesthetists Dodge, Smith The psycholinguists Motor system ≠ verbal thought Oppenheim, Dell Error during inner speech The introspectors The psychophysiologists Egger, Stricker, Ballet, Reed, Max, Jacobson, Sokolov, McGuigan, Cohen, Locke Bastian, Paulhan, Saint-Paul Muscular and electromyographic correlates of Sensory vs. motor images inner speech 1850 1900 2000 2020 1950 The Russians, vol. II Luria, Leontiev, Sokolov Development, relation between thought and language The Russians, vol. I The modern philosophers Vygotsky, Blonski, Anan'ev Carruthers, Langland-Hassan, Vicente, Gregory Development, relation between thought Consciousness, thought as action, predictive coding and language The neurocognitivists Feinberg, Frith, Tian & Poeppel, Lævenbruck et al. The early psychologists / behaviourists Motor control applied to inner speech Watson, James Thought and inner speech emerge from The decoders muscular activity Knight et al., Kapur et al. Decoding inner speech (eCOG, sEMG)